WELCOME to Her Majesty's Chapel Royal, Hampton Court Palace for this service, and to a continuous tradition of worship that has been practised on this site for at least 800 years. This is one of the Queen's Chapels, and as such, not a parish church.

The original chapel was founded by the Knights Hospitaller long before Cardinal Wolsey began rebuilding it in 1528. The fine vaulted ceiling, dating from 1535, was the major addition by Henry VIII. Most of the chapel furnishings date from the late 17th and early 18th century and were designed by Sir Christopher Wren. The organ (although much altered and re-built) essentially dates back to 1711 and retains not only its fine case but much original pipework.

The Chapel Royal was not originally a building but a body of priests and singers that traditionally accompanied the monarch wherever he or she went. Only later did the buildings this body used become known by that name. Today, as well as Hampton Court, there are Chapels Royal at The Tower of London, and St James's Palace, which is the headquarters of the Chapel Royal. Services in all of Her Majesty's Chapels are based on those from the 1662 Book of Common Prayer, and you will have been handed an Order of Service with this booklet.

The Chapel Royal has an unrivalled continued tradition of choral music. Many of the greatest English composers have worked and composed pieces in and for this place, Tallis, Byrd, Gibbons and Purcell among them. It is, therefore, wholly appropriate that worship is enhanced by music, which now may come from the English or European choral traditions. The texts are usually sung in their original language, usually English or Latin.

This booklet contains the details of that music, as well as the hymns and lessons for each choral service. The hymns can found in the green New English Hymnal. In a tradition begun at the start of the Great War, we always end by singing the National Anthem, asking God to send his blessings upon the Queen.

Author of Life Divine

Louis Halsey (b. 1929)

Words by Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

Author of life divine,
who hast a table spread,
furnished with mystic wine
and everlasting bread,
preserve the life thysself hast giv'n,
and feed and train us up for heav'n.

Our needy souls sustain with fresh supplies of love,
till all thy life we gain
and all thy fullness prove,
and strengthened by thy perfect grace,
behold without a veil thy face.

Te lucis ante terminum

Matthew Martin (b. 1976)

Te lucis ante terminum, Rerum Creator, poscimus Ut pro tua clementia Sis praesul et custodia.	Before the ending of the day, Creator of the world, we pray That with thy wonted favour thou Wouldst be our guard and keeper now.
Procul recedant somnia Et noctium phantasmata, Hostemque nostrum comprime Ne pollutantur corpora.	From all ill dreams defend our eyes, From nightly fears and fantasies; Tread under foot our ghostly foe, That no pollution we may know.
Praesta, Pater piissime Patrique compar unice Cum Spiritu Paraclito Regnans per omne saeculum.	O Father, that we ask be done, Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son, Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee Doth live and reign eternally.
Amen.	Amen.

Hymn

O valiant hearts, who to your glory came
 Through dust of conflict and through battle flame;
 Tranquil you lie, your knightly virtue proved,
 Your memory hallowed in the land you loved.

Proudly you gathered, rank on rank, to war,
 As who had heard God's message from afar;
 All you had hoped for, all you had, you gave
 To save mankind – yourselves you scorned to save.

Splendid you passed, the great surrender made,
 Into the light that never more shall fade;
 Deep your contentment in that blest abode,
 Who wait the last clear trumpet-call of God.

O risen Lord, O Shepherd of our dead,
 Whose Cross has brought them and whose staff has led,
 In glorious hope their proud and sorrowing land
 Commits her children to thy gracious hand.

So they gave their bodies

Peter Aston (1938-2013)

So they gave their bodies to the commonwealth,
And received praise that will never die,
And a home in the minds of men.

Their story lives on,
Without visible symbol,
Woven into the stuff of other men's lives.

So they gave their bodies to the commonwealth,
And received praise that will never die.

We wait for thy loving kindness

William McKie (1901-1984)

We wait for thy loving-kindness,
O God: in the midst of thy temple.
Alleluia. O God, according to thy Name,
so is thy praise unto the world's end:
thy right hand is full of righteousness. Alleluia.
O Lord, send us now prosperity. Amen.

Blessed be the God and Father
Samuel Sebastian Wesley (1810-1876)

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again
 unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled,
 that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,
 who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.
 But as he which hath called you is holy,
 so be ye holy in all manner of conversation.
 Pass the time of your sojourning here in fear.
 See that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently.
 Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible,
 by the word of God.
 For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass.
 The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:
 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen.

Let all the world

Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

Let all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King!
The heavens are not too high,
His praise may thither fly;
The earth is not too low,
His praises there may grow.
Let all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King!

Let all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King!
The Church with psalms must shout,
No door can keep them out;
But above all the heart
Must bear the longest part.
Let all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King!
